WE ALL PULLED OFF THE HERCULEAN FEAT OF BALANCING OUR MAJORS, LIVES, PANDEMIC, AND EXTRACURRICULARS; WHEREVER WE GO NOW, GAP YEAR, WORK, GRAD SCHOOL, CELEBRITYDOM, INFAMY - WE'LL BE AMAZING AT IT BECAUSE WE'VE HAD FOUR YEARS OF PRACTICE BRINGING OUT OUR FULL POTENTIAL. SO, CELEBRATE YOURSELVES, BECAUSE WE DID IT, AND BRACE YOURSELVES TO EXPLORE A FUTURE BRIGHTER THAN YOU COULD'VE IMAGINED. CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2022!"

GENNADY VULAKH, BROOKLYN

DEDICATION TO THE
class of 2022

MARSHAL FOR THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

FOR THE 2022 GRADUATES:

As a Macaulay graduate, you have had incomparable experiences. You may have gone abroad, done research in your field, been an intern, traveled within the city, attended expert-led seminars and discussions, visited enough museums or cultural sites to pick a favorite, or so much more.

As a Macaulay graduate, you have met amazing people from across the city, country, and the world. Hopefully you realize that you are on your way to becoming an amazing person for a future student to meet.

As a Macaulay graduate, you have developed friendships with peers and faculty that will last a lifetime. Many of the people you connected with over the last 4 years will remain in your life like an extended family.

As a Macaulay graduate, you are part of a cohort of peers and part of a broader tradition of Macaulay graduates who came before you and those who will follow.

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the ranks of Macaulay Alumni.

-Dr. Corinna Singleman '08 (Queens)

commencement address

DR. JESSICA L. WARE

LEADING ENTOMOLOGIST, RESEARCHER, EDUCATOR AND
FIELD BIOLOGIST

Dr. Ware is an associate curator in invertebrate zoology at the American Museum of Natural History. Her research focuses on the evolution of behavioral and physiological adaptations in insects, with an emphasis on how these occur in Odonata (dragonflies and damselflies) and Dictyoptera (termites, cockroaches, and mantises). She holds a BSc from the University of British Columbia in Canada, and a PhD from Rutgers, New Brunswick.

Dr. Ware is the co-founder of Entomologists of Color, past president of the Worldwide Dragonfly Association, and serves as current president of the Entomological Society of America. She was recently awarded a PECASE medal from the US government for her work on insect evolution.

FROM NEW YORK STATE ASSEMBLY MEMBER RICHARD N. GOTTFRIED

To the Macaulay Honors College Class of 2022, the Classes of 2020 and 2021, and the extended community of the City University of New York:

I extend my warmest congratulations to Macaulay Honors College's Class of 2022, and equally hearty applause to the Macaulay Classes of 2020 and 2021, who were unable to attend in-person ceremonies because of the COVID pandemic.

I also send greetings to CUNY Chancellor Félix V. Matos Rodríguez; Dr. Vanessa K. Valdés, Macaulay Honors College Interim Dean; Dr. Corinna Singleman, faculty marshal; and today's featured speaker and honorary degree recipient, the noted entomologist, researcher, educator and field biologist, Dr. Jessica Ware.

Macaulay is a crown jewel of CUNY's dazzling array of colleges, which offer a public undergraduate education unsurpassed in the nation. As the son of two parents who both graduated from colleges that are part of the CUNY system, my own progressive values have been deeply influenced by the helping hand CUNY extended my family as I served the last 52 years as a Member of the New York State Assembly. As I retire this year, I would like to add that I am proud to have represented Macaulay Honors College since its founding.

Congratulations to all the graduates of Macaulay Honors College celebrating today!

Very truly yours,
Richard Gottfried
NYS Assembly Member

CITY COUNCIL MEMBER GALE BREWER

Dear Friends:

The City University of New York is a critical component of the lifeblood of New York City, and is the jewel of the city. Since 2001, Macaulay has supported NYC's brightest and most promising students and helped them pursue their ambitions through its unique model.

Macaulay is celebrating its 20th anniversary this academic year and continues to be a beacon that fosters excellence. In my years of public service, I have worked with so many talented Macaulay student intern in my office, and Macaulay is often my first thought when I'm in search of thoughtful perspectives and young leaders who can tackle tough challenges.

Congratulations to all of the students in Macaulay's 2022 graduating class. You are now part of a network of over 6,000 graduates working to create positive change. You are part of a unique institution—a center of true excellence within a public university system whose mission could not be more important: making higher education accessible to all.

Thank you for being a part of this wonderful institution. Whether it's in public service, the business world, technology, the arts, entertainment or culture, I hope our paths cross and I look forward to seeing all you will accomplish.

Sincerely,

Gale A. Brewer

FROM MANHATTAN
BOROUGH PRESIDENT
MARK LEVINE

Congratulations, graduates, on this enormous milestone. Earning a college degree is never an easy task, and your journey was all the more complicated by a pandemic that made learning difficult many times over. Now those years are behind you, and you leave here today with a degree from one of New York's most prestigious universities and an education that has prepared you for whatever path you're pursuing next. You are part of a long legacy of Macaulay graduates who go on to make New York City and the world a better place, leveraging the wealth of knowledge and hands-on experiences from spaces like your MHC seminar courses. Macaulay alumni are innovators, artists, intellectuals, activists, and I look forward to seeing what you accomplish in the decades to come.

No one gets to this point alone. We can't forget a huge thank-you to your professors, Macaulay staff, networks at your host campuses, family, and friends. Their support and sacrifices made today possible.

Wherever you go next, know two things: that you will always have the rock-solid foundation of your years at Macaulay and that you will always have a home at 35 West 67th Street. What you learned in and out of the classroom will guide you as you build your future.

Mark Levine
Manhattan Borough President

I BELIEVE IT IS THAT UNIQUE 'MACAULAY' TRAIT IN EACH OF US—THAT EXTRA OUNCE OF AMBITION—MOTIVATING US TO GO THE ADDITIONAL MILE TO ACHIEVE GREATNESS NO MATTER WHAT THE REST OF THE WORLD, OR A BAD WI-FI CONNECTION, COULD THROW AT US. THE WORLD WE ARE ENTERING NEEDS US. IT NEEDS THAT SPECIAL MACAULAY SOMETHING IN ALL OF US TO TAKE CHARGE AND LEAD. WE HAVE ALL THE TOOLS FOR IMMENSE SUCCESS IF WE CONTINUE TO WORK AS A TEAM.

ABBE PANNUCCI, CITY

hearken well (o macaulay)

*Hearken well, all ye daughters and sons of New York,
Where the beautiful lights shine so bright,
In the City University of New York,
Where the mind and the spirit take flight.
O join one and all, both humble and grand,
While as one we cross avenues wide,
All together now honor our college so loved.
O Macaulay we walk side by side!*

SPECIAL THANKS

Each Macaulay graduate represents the unique partnership that Macaulay Honors College shares with dozens of campus administrators and faculty members across five boroughs and eight campuses—all of whom work tirelessly on behalf of our students. We wish to thank our remarkable colleagues who helped to make this day possible and who made the students' experience a truly exceptional one. It really does take a village.

Macaulay Honors College extends its appreciation to the staff and students who serve as volunteers.

This commencement program lists potential degree candidates from each college, sorted by degree type; It is not a verification of their completion of degree requirements.
