THE @MACAULAY AUTHOR SERIES ON MANHATTAN'S WEST SIDE CONTINUES WITH ACCLAIMED GOOSEBUMPS AUTHOR R.L. STINE READING FROM, DISCUSSING AND SIGNING HIS FIRST NOVEL FOR ADULTS, RED RAIN, ON NOVEMBER 13, 2012

New York, NY (October 19, 2012) - The publishing community collaborates on an exciting new venture: the @Macaulay Author Series. Partnering with Macaulay Honors College at CUNY, in an historic building on West 67th Street just off Central Park, the series brings writers of the best in new fiction and nonfiction to a neighborhood teeming with culture consumers and booklovers. The series is a welcome return of author appearances for an area of the city currently under-served by bookstores and literary events.

The monthly reading series continues with the goose-bumps-inducing R.L. STINE, who will share his first novel for adults, Red Rain (Touchstone/Simon&Schuster). Destined to become as enormous a best seller for grownups as his celebrated Goosebumps novels are for the young, Red Rain takes an unsuspecting travel writer to an isolated island off the South Carolina coast during hurricane season. But it's the storm's aftermath that confronts her with true horror. Mr. Stine's program takes place on Tuesday, November 13 from 7:00pm to 9:00pm.

"Real characters, crisp writing, and a wicked sense of humor. Keep this book far, far away from your kids." DOUGLAS PRESTON

The following reading and book signing in the series will bring ABC "Chew" star CARLA HALL and her very personal cookbook and memoir Cooking With Love: Comfort Food That Hugs You (Free Press) to Macaulay on December 10. A sure hit for the holidays, Cooking With Love bubbles over with family stories, refreshing recipes and culinary adventures.

"Carla Hall knocks it out of the park with her first book, all about love, tradition, family, flavor and style, and flavor again." MARIO BATALI

The monthly evening series is hosted at Macaulay Honors College, conveniently located at 35 West 67th Street, between Central Park and Lincoln Center. The programs will take place in the Lecture Hall and adjacent Reading Room. The series is sponsored by Friends of Macaulay.
