FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The @Macaulay Author Series Presents Professor and Author Peter Andreas' and His Riveting Memoir *Rebel Mother

(March 31, 2017, New York, NY) On Wednesday, April 26, 2017, the @Macaulay Author Series will host professor and author Peter Andreas (Smuggler Nation), who has written the book Rebel Mother: My Childhood Chasing the Revolution. The book tells the story of Andreas' complicated childhood and relationship with his mother, a 1950s housewife turned radical feminist and Marxist. Influenced by changing times, Andreas' mother embarks on a quest of "isms"—fighting the bad ones (such as racism) and fighting for the good ones (such as feminism)—and takes young Peter with her. Spanning not only years, but states and continents, Rebel Mother explores a vibrant era of revolution and the journey that comes from chasing it.

The program, which is free and open to the public at CUNY's Macaulay Honors College, runs 7pm-9pm at 35 West 67 Street (between Central Park West and Columbus Avenue). The author will sign the book, which will be available for purchase. Reservations are recommended. Please RSVP: <https://macaulay.cuny.edu/event/registration/?ee=151>
